PLAINTIFFS’ MOTION FOR LEAVE TO SUBMIT ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGM ENT

Case No. 2:12-cv-00380-RJS

Judge Robert J. Shelby

Magistrate Judge Evelyn J. Furse

Plaintiffs Excitement Dietetics, LLC (“Excitement”) and R. Walker Companies, LLC (“RWC”) (together, “Plaintiffs”), by and through counsel, and pursuant to Rules 7 and 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, hereby move the Court for leave to submit additional evidence in support of their June 14, 2013 Motion for Partial Summary Judgment (the “Partial MSJ”) against Donald “Scott” Stevenson (“Scott”) and Tyson Quick (“Tyson”) on Count I of the Second Amended Complaint, asserting a claim for federal trademark infringement.

BACKGROUND AND INTRODUCTION

1. Among other arguments and evidence presented in the Partial MSJ, Plaintiffs detailed the various bank and eBay accounts utilized by Scott and Tyson in their efforts to counterfeit and sell counterfeit products utilizing Plaintiffs’ trademarks Apidexin and Phenphedrine. See Partial MSJ, Docket No. 36, pp. 5–7, ¶¶ 18–35.

2. Particularly, the Partial MSJ detailed how William Patrick Tilman (“Tilman”) had turned over access to his Paypal and eBay accounts to Scott and Tyson so that they could sell Apidexin and Phenphedrine counterfeits from the account. See id.

3. The Partial MSJ also described how Tilman’s Paypal account was associated with a Chase bank account that had been opened by Scott (the “Chase Account”). See id.

4. In his opposition to the Partial MSJ, Tyson denied that he and Scott had obtained access to Tilman’s eBay and Paypal accounts and denied having “any knowledge” of the Chase Account. Memo in Opposition to Partial MSJ, Docket No. 38, pp. 2–4.

5. Additionally, Tyson asserted that he had “never sold, marketed, or promoted Phenphedrine or Apidexin products actual or counterfeit,” and that he had never made any money from the sale of counterfeit. Id. pp. 1, 2, 4.

6. Plaintiffs filed their Reply Memorandum in Support of the Partial MSJ, responding specifically to Tyson’s Opposition, on July 12, 2013. See Reply Memo, Docket No. 43.

7. A hearing on the Partial MSJ has been scheduled for December 6, 2013. Docket No. 51.

8. Within the past week, Paypal has produced to Plaintiffs additional information linking Tyson to the creation and maintenance of Paypal Accounts on his own behalf and in association with InstaPage, Inc. See Account Info for Tyson Quick, FIT Pages 1, 2, and 3, true and accurate copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibit A, Exhibit B, Exhibit C, respectively; see also Paypal Custodian of Records Declaration, a true and accurate copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit D.

9. The InstaPage Account, now closed, sent a total of $193,896.21 over the course of its existence, and received a total amount of $576,935.75 during that same time. FIT Page 1, Exhibit A, p. 1; see also Transaction Log 1, a true and accurate representation of which has been produced and attached hereto as Exhibit E.

10. The Instapage Account documents produced by Paypal reflect over ninety transactions between Instapage and Tilman, who was utilizing the email address “manerasarah@gmail.com,” and between Instapage and Health Revitalization, an entity utilizing the email address “williamthetilman@gmail.com.” Transaction Log 1.

11. Those transactions account for some $27,849.40 exchanged between the parties from May 2011 and May 2012. Id.

12. Further, one of Tyson’s personal accounts—associated with the email tyson@jounce.com, see FIT Page 3, Exhibit C—references the sale or refund of Apidexin (a “Formula Diet Pill – GREAT PRICE!!”) at least twice in the subject lines of a transaction between Tyson and “Billy Tillamook.” See Transaction Log 3, pp. EXC002069, 2097, a true and accurate representation of which has been produced and attached hereto as Exhibit F.

ARGUMENT

In deciding motions for summary judgment, courts “must construe all facts and reasonable inferences therefrom in the light most favorable to the nonmoving party.” Matsushita Elec. Indus. Co. v. Zenith Radio Corp., 475 U.S. 574, 587, (1986); Pueblo of Santa Ana v. Kelly, 104 F.3d 1546, 1552 (10th Cir.1997). In turn, once the moving party has carried its burden, the nonmoving party must “go beyond the pleadings and by . . . affidavits, or by the ‘depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file,’ designate ‘specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial.’” Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 324 (1986) (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 56). Put another way, “mere allegations and references to the pleadings will not suffice” to defeat a meritorious motion for summary judgment. Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248 (1986).

Tyson, as the non-moving party to the Partial MSJ, has already failed to go beyond the pleadings or mere allegations to show there is a genuine issue for trial. See Reply Memo, Docket No. 43, pp. 7–10. Accordingly, the Court could decide the Partial MSJ on that deficiency alone. However, given the fact-intensive inquiries at the heart of summary judgment proceedings, and out of an abundance of caution, Plaintiffs request leave of the Court to submit additional, newly discovered evidence to better counter Tyson’s denials.

In this Court, moving parties are allowed on reply to “cite additional evidence not previously cited in the opening memorandum to rebut a claim that a material fact is in dispute.”

D.U.Civ.R. 7-1(d). Furthermore, even when time for briefing has long since passed, newly discovered evidence material to the allegations, claims, or denials in a motion for summary judgment, may be considered by courts in the summary judgment context. C.f. Webber v. Mefford, 43 F.3d 1340, 1345 (10th. Cir. 1994) (concluding that newly discovered evidence may be considered by a court on a “postjudgment motion to reconsider summary judgment”).

Here, Paypal’s recently disclosed documents were not provided to Plaintiffs until November 8, 2013, see Exhibit D, nearly three months after Plaintiffs submitted their Reply Memo, Docket No. 43. These new documents from Paypal demonstrate that Tyson in fact owns or has owned several Paypal accounts linked to transactions between him and Tilman and offer support of Tyson’s sale of counterfeit Phenphedrine and Apidexin. Perhaps most importantly, this new evidence further discredits Tyson’s unsupported denials in his Opposition to the Partial MSJ. In light of the materiality of the newly discovered evidence to the Partial MSJ and given that the parties still have weeks until oral argument, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court grant them leave to submit this newly discovered evidence in support of the Partial MSJ.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Of course, should the Court grant this motion, Plaintiffs would not object to Tyson or Scott’s ability challenge, respond, or otherwise object to the newly submitted evidence.

CONCLUSION

For those reasons above, and in order to further support the facts laid out in the Partial MSJ, Plaintiffs respectfully request leave to submit the additional, newly discovered evidence contained in Exhibits A–F for the Court’s consideration in deciding the Partial MSJ.

DATED this 15th day of November, 2013.
